YOUTH PERSPECTIVE: CHANGING HEARTS AND MINDS

Federal accessibility legislation is set to provide a concrete foundation for increasing the inclusion of people with non-visible disabilities, but it's just the start. The next big challenge? Changing hearts and minds.

So how can we, as Canadian youth, raise awareness and create attitudinal change both in the short and long term? What collaborative models can we implement? How do we make accessibility a part of everyday thinking so that all disabilities are viewed equally?

Join the Spotlight Project on Invisible Disabilities as we explore, with a panel of dynamic youth, how we can directly impact and affect attitude change within the hearts and minds of our fellow Canadians.

YOUTH PANELISTS WILL INCLUDE:

Ainsley Latour

Canadian Hard of Hearing Association \(CHHA\)

Michaela Burton

National Education Association of Disabled Students \(NEADS\)

Martin Bauman

Canadian Mental Health Association \(CMHA\)
